

THE DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1901, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

OUR MIGHTY BUSINESS STRIDES

Salt Lake's Bank Clearings Appal New York—Increase of 205½ Per Cent Over Same Week Last Year.

For months past the volume of business in Salt Lake has been increasing with such rapidity as to attract the attention of the country. Day after day and week after week it has gone forth by leaps and bounds until all past records have not only been smashed but so far distanced as to cause conservative men to wonder when and what the end will be.

The detailed showing of each day's business has been given regularly in the "News," together with a comparison of business for the same day last year, and from them readers have been able to see the substantial growth of the city. They know that the general volatility of business has been tremendously augmented, but the forward march has also been great. The facts are so great as to cause the New York commercial agencies to stand appalled at the showing. For the week ending today the Salt Lake bank clearings amounted to $2,665,414.82, or an increase of 205½ per cent, which outstrips all the cities in the Union, and in fact in the world. New York's increase is only 15.5; Boston's is 11.5; Chicago's but 4.5; St. Louis's is 3.5; Buffalo, where the great Pan-American Exposition is being held is but 2.5 per cent. In the volume of business transacted, Salt Lake leads Denver, whose clearings for the same period were $3,407,251, by about 150 per cent, and Los Angeles, whose clearings for the same length of time amounted to $2,286,341, by 210 per cent and all other cities, of anywhere near equal population by the same proportion.

SPRY'S TELEGRAM A DECEPTION.

Did Not Return Today as He Telegraphed His Wife—A Strange Woman Back of His Flight—Said to Have Been Seriously Involved.

When Mrs. Spry received a telegram from her absconding husband as published in last night's "News," Chief Hilson and Detective Sheets did not hesitate to declare that the message was sent for the purpose of throwing them off the track and causing them to believe he might come home today as stated.

The developments today prove that their suspicions were correct. The train on which Spry would have arrived, had he kept his word, came in at 9:45 this morning, but he was not on it and it is now about as certain as anything can be that he is making good his escape as rapidly as possible. Back of his flight is a strange woman, according to information given out today. It is stated that he became seriously involved with her and that her present condition is a most serious one. It is stated that he had been giving her large sums of money of late in order to prevent startling disclosures. Whether this is true remains to be seen, but Detective Sheets declares that he knows of no other reason for Spry's rash act. He does not think that a man raised in the community as Spry has been and who has a wife and children in distress,

STREET RAILROAD DEAL RATIFIED

A. W. McCune Also Gets Return R. Anderson's Stock for a Figure Close to $60 a Share—Total About $35,000—How it Brought Its Owner a Small Fortune.

The stockholders of the Salt Lake City Railroad company met in the offices of the company in the Hooper block this morning and ratified the action taken by the directors of the corporation at their last meeting. The stockholders approved of the action of the directors regarding the consolidation of the two transit systems of this city and the issuing of bonds as set forth in the published notice of the meeting which has appeared in the public press for some time past. Those who were present at the meeting this morning were President C. L. Road, W. P. Read, Vivian McCune, Joseph S. Wells, Spencer Clawson and B. M. Ellerbeck. The balance of the stockholders voted by proxy. Out of the 17,000 shares to be voted, 239 failed to be registered. After the meeting the stockholders who were approached stated that beyond the routine business and the question of the issue of bonds nothing further came up before the consideration of the stockholders.

One of the interesting features of the gathering of the stockholders this morning was the surrender by Robert R. Anderson of his 500 shares in the Salt received $10,000 for them, but he concluded to hold on, with the result that this morning a small fortune was transferred to his bank account.

SENATOR KYLE'S SUCCESSOR.

Hon. A. B. Kittredge of Sioux Falls Will be Appointed.

Omaha, Neb., July 6.—A special to the World-Herald from Sioux Falls, S. D., says:

Hon. A. B. Kittredge, a prominent attorney of this city and ex-Republican national committeeman from South Dakota, will be appointed by Governor Herried to fill the vacancy caused by the death a few days ago of United States Senator James H. Kyle.

FREIGHT HANDLERS' STRIKE.

It Looks as Though It Would End Before Night.

St. Louis, July 6.—It looks today as if the strike of freight handlers in East St. Louis would be at an end before night. The 500 transfer teamsters who struck out of sympathy for the freight handlers, returned to work today in accordance with the action taken by their union last night.

Evidently feeling the strike would be hopeless without the aid of other bodies, the freight handlers today modified their demands from $1.00 to $1.50 a day for pickers and from $1.50 to $1.40 a day for truckers.

MACHINISTS MARCH TO THE MARSHAL.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 6.—A novel spectacle was presented in the U. S. district court when seventy striking machinists, who had been enjoined by order of court, marched in a body to the office of the United States marshal for the purpose of facilitating the service upon them which the marshal was bound to make. As the name of each one was called, he stepped forward and received a copy of the injunction and his subsequent refusal to obey it. The machinists lodged were served through their presidents. The strikers voluntarily took this course, realizing the difficulty of finding their members, some of whom are in the city, and desiring in this way to give proof of their intention to obey the law.

HOOP STEEL OFFICIALS.

They Arrive in Pittsburgh to Take up Their Headquarters.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—The special train carrying the employees and former officers of the National Steel and American Steel Hoop companies reached Pittsburgh from New York this morning. The two concerns, which have been merged into the Carnegie company, will take up their headquarters in the Carnegie building on Monday. The trip from New York was made without incident.

Considerable interest is manifested in manufacturing and labor circles as to the bearing of the absorption of the American Steel Hoop company by the Carnegie company will have on the strike recently ordered by the Amalgamated association. President Charles M. Schwab of the United States Steel corporation, and still a leading spirit in the affairs of the Carnegie Steel company of which he formerly was president, is understood to be opposed to organized labor. President T. J. Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, thinks, however, that the change will not prove inimical to his association. He said there was nothing new to be given out regarding the strike. Asked as to the meeting of the advisory board, he said:

"This is the regular meeting time and I will find anything of much importance, I will call the board together to consider it, but that is all."

No troops will be sent unless there shall be another outbreak of violence or the strikers shall again take possession of the mine from which they have voluntarily withdrawn.

EX-CHANCELLOR VON HOHENLOHE.

He Dies Unexpectedly at Ragatz, Switzerland.

WAS CAPRIVI'S SUCCESSOR.

He Was a Great Friend of America and Did Much to Preserve Friendly Relations With Her.

Berlin, July 6.—Prince von Hohenlohe, formerly German imperial chancellor, died at Ragatz, Switzerland, last evening.

Prince von Hohenlohe's death was generally unexpected here, as he left Berlin several weeks ago apparently in good health, although his increasing weakness was evident. The prince arrived at Ragatz extremely exhausted. His death is attributed to the weakness of old age. The arrangements for the transportation of the body to Germany and for the obsequies are not yet definitely determined upon, but it is expected that the remains will be conveyed to the Hohenlohe ancestral home, at Schillingsfurst, Bavaria, where the family vault is situated and where the body of Prince von Hohenlohe's wife is interred. It is also expected that Chancellor von Buelow will break his seaside rest and attend the funeral.

Although Emperor William has fixed his departure on his trip to Norway for Monday next, it is deemed likely that his majesty will once more postpone the date of his starting on his trip in order to enable him to attend the obsequies. Owing to Emperor William's relationship to Prince von Hohenlohe, his majesty always called the prince "Uncle Chlodwig."

It is not believed here that the body of Prince von Hohenlohe will be brought to Berlin before being taken to Schillingsfurst.

The officials of the United States embassy informed the correspondent here of the Associated Press that the death of the former chancellor was much regretted because of his uniform kindness towards Americans and American interests. Prince von Hohenlohe's attitude, through his chancellorship, was always fair and conciliatory in regard to German-American relations. Although he was an extensive estate owner, he did not share the agrarian hostility towards the United States. It was owing, in a large measure, to his friendly spirit, during several trying years, that Germany's relations with the United States never departed from cordiality. He received many Americans and was always friendly to them. At the time of the death of United States Ambassador Theodore T. Ruman, in 1896, which occurred in the middle of the night, Secretary Jackson went early in the morning to inform the cabinet ministers of Mr. Ruman's demise but only found Minister Hohenlohe ready to receive him.

PRESIDENT IN CANTON.

Mrs. McKinley Stood the Journey Very Well Indeed.

Canton, Ohio, July 6.—The train bearing the presidential party arrived here at 11:30 this morning. Mrs. McKinley stood the journey well. Owing to Mrs. McKinley's illness, there was no formal demonstration at the station upon the arrival of the train, though the crowd completely filled the station platform. When the President and Mrs. McKinley stepped from the train a hearty cheer of welcome went up. The President's carriage arrived from Washington several days ago and is being driven by Mrs. McKinley. The President and Mrs. McKinley were driven to their old home.

It was said by members of the President's party that Mrs. McKinley had a small amount of cold, but that her condition continued favorable.

Machinists File Their Answer.

Milwaukee, July 6.—Members of the International Machinists union who were enjoined two weeks ago by the Vilter Manufacturing company from interfering in the affairs of the company, filed an answer today to the injunction. The answer asserts that about 300 manufacturers and corporations throughout the country unlawfully conspired, under the name of the National Metal Trades association for the purpose of defeating the organization of the machinists in their request for a nine hour day. The answer alleged that the Vilter company, under cover, is a member of such alleged conspiracy.

The striking machinists say they have kept wholly within the limits of the law and ask that the injunction allowed be vacated and the suit dismissed.

Two Foul Murders in Arkansas.

Helena, Ark., July 6.—Four miles from Turner, Mont., county, Jim Johns and his 17-year-old niece were murdered and their bodies placed in a burning building. When the fire had been extinguished by neighbors it was found that the girl had been stabbed to the heart and her head crushed, apparently with an axe, while Johns' head was crushed and both arms broken. There is no clue.

PAUL KRUGER'S PRIVATEERS.

Talk About Commissioning Them Not Taken Seriously at Washington.

Washington, July 6.—The report from Brussels that former President Kruger being urged to notify the powers that unless they intervened in the South African contest he will commission privateers, is not treated seriously here. It is well understood as an outcome of the war with Spain that the United States government will never again, except in the most extraordinary emergency, issue letters of marque and the same reasons that impel the government to this course undoubtedly would operate to prevent our government from recognizing any such warrants issued by any other nation, even were that nation in full standing.

In the case of the Spanish war both of the belligerents, by agreement, refrained from issuing commissions to privateers and it now has been many years since the flag of any respectable nation has flown over such craft. In the case of Mr. Kruger it is extremely doubtful whether he would, if the issue were forced in this way, be recognized as a de facto president authorized to issue commissions to privateers. That point would have to be settled at the outset and each nation whose commerce was affected or threatened by the privateers would determine for itself his competency. It is scarcely to be expected that they would decide against their own commercial interests, so that Mr. Kruger's privateers would find it difficult to secure general recognition, without President Kruger's consent is. The threat to send out privateers without President Kruger's consent is idle. It is pointed out here that such craft would be pirates pure and simple and the civilized world would sweep them off the seas if they should begin operations against the commerce of the nations.

Duffy, Georgetown University, won the first heat. Time—10.1-5. In another heat of this event, W. B. Tewksbury, University of Pennsylvania, finished first. Time—10. Coe had things all his own way.

After winning his heat easily, Duffy started as a favorite in the final for the 100 yards, came away from the start and won as he liked.

The hurdles proved another safe thing. Kraenzlein led all the way and won four and a half yards in time equaling his own record. Baxter, of Pennsylvania, started but was out-penned and stopped at the sixth hurdle.

Kansas City, Mo., July 6.—A special to the Star from Ottumwa, Iowa, says: An unsuccessful attempt was made this morning by three masked men to rob the Stroud state bank. The robbers entered the room adjoining the bank where Amos Seaton, assistant cashier, and Earl Hildebrand, were asleep. The young men were awakened and bound hand and foot and told that if they made any noise they would be shot by the fellow who stood over them with a revolver.

The robbers then injected nitroglycerine into the walls of the bank and the explosions almost totally destroyed the safe, but they failed to get to the money vault. They relieved Heath and Seaton of their watches and a small amount of money. Heath begged for his watch on account of it being a keepsake, and it was given back to him.

SHOT HIS COMPANION FOR FUN.

The Foolhardy Act of William Bailey, Will, it is Said, Cause the Death of Jacob Faldmo—Bullet Struck His Foot and Lockjaw Developed.

A most unfortunate case of shooting came to light this afternoon when Officers Sperry and Davis took to the police station a 14-year-old boy named William Bailey. It seems that a week ago last Friday young Bailey and Jacob Faldmo, 12 years of age, with another companion, were out to Big Cottonwood shooting with a twenty-two caliber rifle. They were using blank cartridges and the Bailey boy had the gun. Young Faldmo left his companions to go into Chas. Hemmilt's house, where he had been staying for a few days, and Bailey's companion suggested that he take a shot at Faldmo. The Bailey boy asked if the gun had a blank cartridge in it, and receiving an affirmative reply, took aim and fired. But the gun had a live cartridge in it and Faldmo was struck on the left foot.

He screamed with pain, and the other boys ran to his assistance.

He was placed in a buggy and conveyed to his home, which is in New England addition. The boys are neighbors. Bailey had been working at Hemmilt's sickening fruit.

The Faldmo boy was attended by Dr. Mayo, and seemed to be getting along all right until yesterday, when he contracted the dreaded lockjaw. Dr. Mayo was making arrangements to send him to the hospital this afternoon, but it is his opinion that he cannot live. The boys' parents and all concerned are grief-stricken over the sad affair. Young Bailey says that he did not have the slightest idea that the gun was loaded, and says that they were merely shooting for fun, and that they were all on the most friendly terms and had not had any trouble whatever. The shooting occurred near the Holiday postoffice. Bailey and his father, who is a farmer, were at the police station this morning awaiting developments, but they were permitted to depart at a late hour.
